

Forest King is a native of the Mississippi Gulf Coast. He is a classically trained violinist and has played for 11 years. He has received awards such as "Who's Who in Violin". This prestigious award is given out to 400 violinists across the country between the ages of 10 and 18. He was Concertmaster of the Mary C. O'Keefe Youth Orchestra for two years and Principal violinist of the Singing River Youth Orchestra. Forest is training in ballet, jazz, lyrical, modern, and contemporary styles of dance. Forest is currently a senior at Ocean Springs High School, where he plays trombone in the Ocean Springs High School Blue Grey Pride Marching Band and competes with the Theater Department. He is also a member of the Walter Anderson Players community theater group.