

Jennifer Lynne Carter is about to release her debut album “Meet the Real Jennifer Carter”. She is a singer/songwriter and currently has composed and copyrighted 46 of her own original pieces. She has been singing since she was two and playing piano since 5th grade. Jennifer has performed in many talent shows, auditions, and non-profit benefits along the Gulf Coast. She also enjoys playing and singing at her local church and is a member of the band and choir at Martin Bluff Baptist. Throughout middle and high school, Jennifer was awarded the Outstanding Choral award every year and was well known for her amazing musical talents. She was honored to performing the national anthem at her senior night award ceremony in 2008. Some of her more recent performances and auditions include American Idol, America’s Got Talent, Gulf Coast’s Got Talent, and So You Think You Can Sing? Among her accomplishments, she also was a member of the choir, show choir, band, madrigals, sextet, and honor choir ensembles for 7 years. Upon finishing high school, Jennifer continued her music into college at Cleveland State where she was a member of the chamber choir and Vocal Rhapsody, the college’s top show choir group. She continued her singing and piano lessons through her first year of college and is still a current student with a AA Arts Major of Music with a focus in vocals and vocal education. She is a local resident of Ocean Springs and was born in Gulfport and raised on the Gulf Coast.
