

Marguerite Pivarnik has been performing and teaching professionally for 30 years. She was trained in ballroom dancing at Arthur Murray dance studio in Pennsylvania and is a member of The National Dance Council of America Inc. She has competed all over the nation in the pro-am division with Dancesport. Prior to her coming to the coast she worked for American Dance Exchange in Highland Heights, Ohio. Marguerite has a Master of Fine Arts (MFA) from Boston University and has been an instructor in art K - 12th grade for 30 years. Additionally, she is currently an adjunct professor at MGCCC JD campus. Her work can be seen at local art galleries along the coast. She is currently the President of the Singing River Art Association in Pascagoula, MS and is excited about having classes and dances at Dance Revolution.